Board of Trustees.

The personnel of the Board of Trustees remained the same as last year. The Board met five times during the year to discuss and settle the various questions concerning the mamagement of the Charities.

The President of the Board, Sir K. P. Puttanna Chetty visited the Chatram and the Boarding Home at frequent intervals and the suggestions made by the President during these visits concerning the various details regarding the working of the Boarding Home were taken note of and acted upon. The Secretary was in close touch with the management of the Boarding Home and the trying task of affording due facilities to travellers. Among the individual visits of the other members, mention may be made of the valuable suggestions given to the students by Mr. P. Mahadeviah, B.A.,B.L., during his visit.

Receipts & Expenditure.

The rents realised during the year from the various sources of the Charity proper, amounted to Rs.2208-10-8 against Rs.2671-11-0 of the year 1923-24. The apparent fall is due partly to the increase of collection in 1923-24 of the arrears of 1922-23, and partly to some rents of 1924-25, yet remaining uncollected.

In accordance with an agreement entered into with Mr. G. T. Rudrappa, the adopted son of the late Donor, the Trust has acquired all the properties of Mr. Rudrappa on condition of paying an allowance of Rs.75/- per mensem to Mr. Rudrappa during his life time. Though the agreement was entered into during 1923-24, - yet, owing to some litigations and to the properties being under repairs, the Trust was not abl to realise any income from these properties in 1923-24. The income by way of rents from these properties amounted during the current year to Rs.849/- against an expenditure of Rs.975/- paid to Mr. Rudrappa, as can be seen from the Statement of Receipts and Expenditure appended hereto.

Boarding Charges.

Despite the paucity of funds, as a result of which the applications of many deserving poor students had to be rejected, the number of Boarders in the Free Boarding Home was 58 as against 65 in the previous year. Of these 6 (Six) were studying in the B. A. Class, 19 in the Entrance and 33 in the High School - Classes, besides one student pursuing purely Sanskrit studies.

The number of casual Boarders, i.e., Travellers who were fed free during the year, was 874.

By means of careful economy and the co-operation of the student-Boarders, the Boarding Home charges were reduced to Rs.2854-7-11 as against Rs.3516-7-3 in the year 1923-24.

Medical Aid.

The Medical Officer was regular in his inspections of the Home and afforded timely aid to the students whenever they suffered from slight indispositions.

Buildings.

Buildings.

The amount spent on extensions and annual repairs was Rs.382-4-0 and Rs.1657-8-7 respectively. The former expenditure was incurred towards the laying of additional pipe lines, which has considerably improved the condition of water supply, and the latter is the amount spent on annual white and colour washing, repairing, cleaning, etc. The premises are kept clean and tidy.

Travellers.

The number of travellers, who sought temporary shelter in the Choultry, was 50,000/-, and it may be seen from this figure that the popularity of the Institution is ever on the increase.

Charity Box.

The receipt from this source has fallen, and the Staff of the Institution has been directed to invite the attention of the well-to-do travellers to the Charity Box.

Visitors' Book.

The maintenance of this book has served a useful purpose, since it indicates to the Board the amount of appreciation of the general public in respect of the Institution, as well as the direction in which there is any real defect deserving of rectification. The defects and complaints, pointed out, are duly attended to. Mr. B. Venkoba Rao, Deputy Commissioner, was one of the distinguished visitors during the year, and inspected

inspected the Chatram along with the Amildar.

Reading Room and Library.

The students, who are entrusted with the management of this, are running the same successfully.

Interest.

Government have been pleased to allow the enhanced rate of interest only in respect of --- Rs.19,900/- out of the total deposited endowment of - Rs.90,000/-. It is hoped that the Government will realise the extent of the utility of the Charities and be so sympathetic as to allow the enhanced rate of interest on the whole deposit disregarding any technicalities with regard to the stipulations which were entered into nearly Two Decades ago, when the conditions of the money market and the cost of living were quite different from what they are now.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
